Laura Lee Bishop, Commercial Broker, has been with Pennsylvania Commercial Real Estate, Inc. since 1999. Her main focus of expertise is in Tenant Representation. Through representation, Ms. Bishop works with her clients to locate, negotiate and finally facilitate a corporate relocation which satisfies the total requirements of her client.

Ms. Bishop, along with other associates at Pennsylvania Commercial, has developed strategic alliances with public funding sources for securing financial programs such as grants, tax abatements and special loans when applicable to business.

Some of the clients Ms. Bishop has represented are: Cellomics, SEEC, Sunoco, Fanning/Howey & Associates, Culligan, CTR Systems, Lennox International, Deasy & Whitehill, Pittsburgh Urban Christian School, Ten United, Logica, American Express, San Francisco-based Excel Translations, Le Claire Grienwahn, LLC, Portage National Bank, Tri Boro Federal Credit Union, Residential Resources, Foundation Radiology, Kennametal and Fifth Third Bank.

Ms. Bishop graduated with a degree from Centenary College and pursued advanced education at Penn State University. She holds a real estate license in the state of Pennsylvania.
